I, Cosmo

Carlie Sorosiak

- Pre-empted in the US
- Original and engaging concept
- Beautifully written with real warmth, wit and intelligence

Thirteen-year-old Cosmo loves the Discovery Channel, classic dance films, and most of all, his human – twelve-year-old Max Walker. Hilarious and heart-warming in equal measure, I, Cosmo is the story of one dog and his humans – and how he tries to keep a family together while everything around them falls apart.

Carlie Sorosiak is the author of two novels for young adults, If Birds Fly Back and Wild Blue Wonder. She currently splits her time between the United States and the United Kingdom, hoping to gain an accent like Madonna's.

Charli Howard

- An exciting middle-grade debut with an important message about body positivity
- Handles complex themes – body dysmorphia, absent parents and childhood trauma – with sensitivity and a light touch
- Written by high profile body positivity campaigner, Charli Howard

Molly is in her final year of primary school, with secret dreams of becoming an Olympic swimmer. Having always lived in the shadow of her manipulative best friend, Chloe, Molly finally has the chance to compete in a swimming contest and define herself on her own terms. But with the pressure of fitting in, and the sudden arrival of her mysterious mum, will she give up on her dreams for a shot at popularity?

Charli Howard is a model and body positivity ambassador. When she was fired for her size by her modelling agency, she wrote a powerful letter to her agents which went viral and has used that platform to create The All Woman Project, a charity which goes into schools to educate about body image and mental health issues.

Storm Witch

Ellen Renner

- A powerful new fantasy series from Ellen Renner, prize-winning author of Tribute and Castle of Shadows
- Epic world-building from the natural successor to Ursula Le Guin and Diana Wynne Jones
- Perfect for 9+ fantasy fans with a taste for magic, high drama and thrilling adventure

Child of Air, Water, Earth or Fire: now that she is thirteen Storm must undertake The Choosing and be claimed by one of the Elementals, which will determine her whole life's work. But for Storm, daughter of a father murdered by Water and a warrior mother claimed by Earth, there will be no easy destiny.

The Elementals bestow her with a great and terrible gift. Storm-bringer. Storm-rider. Storm-queller. Storm has powers that no one, not even the island Elders, can understand. And when the Drowned Ones – a savage band of pirates who roam the seas on floating towns – attack her island, will her powers help her to save the people she loves, or is her fate to betray everything she holds dear? Soon Storm faces a decision which will change her life – and that of everyone who lives on her island – forever.

Ellen Renner was born in the USA, but moved to England in her twenties. She is the author of the prize-winning Tribute series ('spell-binding' The Guardian) and Castle of Shadows ('A real treat' The Times). Storm Witch is the first in a powerful new middle-grade fantasy series.

A Chase In Time

Sally Nicholls

Illustrated by Brett Helquist

- By Sally Nicholls, winner of the Waterstones Children's Book Prize 2008 and shortlisted for the Costa Children's Book Prize 2015
- A time-slip adventure series with a cast of engaging characters who will appeal to both boys and girls
- Illustrated by Brett Helquist, renowned artist of Lemony Snicket's A Series of Unfortunate Events

The old gilt-edged mirror has hung in Alex's aunt's house for as long as he can remember. Alex hardly notices it, until the day he and his sister are pulled through the mirror, back into 1912. It's the same house, but a very different place to live, and the people they meet need their help. Soon they're caught up in car chases and treasure hunts as they race to find a priceless golden cup – but will they ever be able to return to their own time?

Age: 7+

Sally Nicholls is the author of twelve books for young people, including Ways to Live Forever, An Island of Our Own and Things a Bright Girl Can Do. She contributed to Make More Noise!, a collection of stories celebrating women's suffrage. Sally lives in a little house in Oxford with her husband and son, writing stories, and trying to believe her luck.

The Mariners

Tom Huddleston

- A startling, cinematic adventure with sunken cities, political unrest and a fractured society
- From the author of official Star Wars series Adventures in Wild Space

Joe and Kara live outside the city Wall and outside the law. It's a tough life, but it's all they know. Inside the Wall, the rich live lives of privilege, little realising how easily their comforts can be washed away by a rising tide of unrest. It takes the arrival of the Mariners, a seafaring people seeking revenge and justice, to turn everything upside down. But justice comes in many guises and corruption is never far away. As Joe and Kara get swept up by the revolution, who will be left standing at the end?

Beautifully told, The Mariners is about the corrupting nature of power and healing effect of love. A story for our times!

The Middler

Kirsty Applebaum

- Hotly-anticipated debut from the winner of the 2016 United Agents Prize for Most Promising Writing for Young People
- An absorbing story of forbidden friendship, loyalty and betrayal; beautifully told and quietly menacing

Age: 9+
Price: £6.99
Format: B-format PB
Word count: 45,000
Publication: April 2019

Eleven-year-old Maggie Cruise lives in Fennis Wick, enclosed and protected from the outside world by a boundary, beyond which the Quiet War rages and the dirty, dangerous wanderers roam. Her brother Jed is an eldest; revered and special. A hero. Her younger brother is Trig – what can you say about Trig except that everyone loves him. But Maggie's just a middler; invisible and left behind. Then, one hot September day, she meets Una, a hungry wanderer girl in need of help, and everything Maggie has ever known gets turned on its head.

Narrated expertly and often hilariously by Maggie, we experience the trials and frustrations of being the forgotten middle child, the child with no voice, even in her own family.

Kirsty Applebaum was the winner of the 2016 United Agents Prize for Most Promising Writing for Young People. She's an exciting new writer with lots of stories to tell.

Ella on the Outside

Cath Howe

- A gripping debut with an incredibly authentic voice and hugely relatable relationships
- Ideal for fans of Jacqueline Wilson and Cathy Cassidy

'A compelling debut ... well observed'
The Bookseller, One to Watch

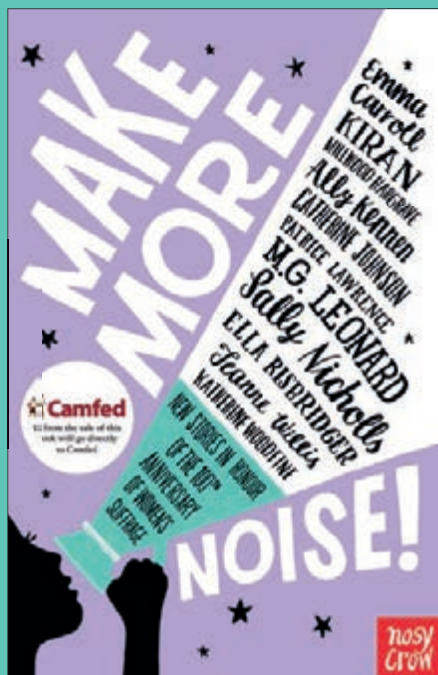

Ella is the new girl at school. She doesn't know anyone and she doesn't have any friends. And she has a terrible secret. Ella can't believe her luck when Lydia, the most popular girl at school, decides to be her new best friend – but what does Lydia really want? And what does it have to do with Molly, the quiet, shy girl who won't talk to anyone? A gripping story of secrets, lies and friendship from an exciting new voice in children's fiction.

Murder at Twilight

Fleur Hitchcock

- A gripping thriller that is perfect for pre-teens
- From the acclaimed author of Murder in Midwinter, Dear Scarlett and Saving Sophia

Viv hates Noah and she doesn't care that he's disappeared. He's probably just flounced off and is pretending to have been kidnapped to get them all to fuss over him. But when blood is found in the back of her mum's car, Viv knows she has to care, has to clear her mum's name. But it's raining, and it's dark, and it's perishingly cold, and she doesn't have a clue where Noah's gone. As the flood waters rise and time starts running out, Viv knows she has to find her enemy, dead or alive...

Luke is a comic-mad eleven-year-old who shares a treehouse with his geeky older brother, Zack. Luke's only mistake is to go for a wee right at the wrong time. While he's gone, an alien gives his undeserving, never-read-a-comic-in-his-life brother superpowers and then tells him to save the universe.

David Solomons has been writing screenplays for many years. His first feature film was an adaptation of Five Children and It, starring Kenneth Branagh and Eddie Izzard. He has won numerous awards including the Waterstones Book Prize 2016, the Prix Enfantaisie 2017 and the Laugh Out Loud Award 2018.

Nuts

Lou Peacock

Illustrated by Yasmeen Ismail

- Hilarious and deceptively simple text about learning to share
- Artwork by Yasmeen Ismail, winner of a V&A Illustration Award
- With a clever use of pronouns – are they my nuts, your nuts, his nuts, her nuts, their nuts or our nuts?

When a little squirrel finds a big pile of nuts, he is VERY excited! But soon he is joined by another squirrel . . . and this squirrel thinks the nuts belong to her. And when Mouse, Bear, Badger and Rabbit get involved, well, things get VERY confusing indeed! They won't even listen to wise old Rabbit! Will the squirrels ever learn to share?

Little Robin Red Vest

Jan Fearnley

- 20th anniversary edition of a much-loved classic with new illustrations
- From multi-award-winning author-illustrator Jan Fearnley, creator of Mr Wolf's Pancakes, which has sold over 90,000 copies in the UK

One frosty evening, a week before Christmas, Little Robin washes seven warm vests for the chilly nights to come. But, as the days go by, he meets many friends who are shivering in the cold, and kindly offers them his vests to wear. By the time Christmas Eve arrives, however, there are no vests left and Little Robin finds himself all alone and cold! That is, until a special someone in a bright red coat arrives to reward his kindness . . .

'A real winter warmer that deserves to rank with the great timeless Christmas stories.'

What Does an Anteater Eat?

Ross Collins

- From Ross Collins, creator of There's a Bear on My Chair, which has sold over 35,000 copies in the UK (TCM) and sold in 9 languages
- A hilarious read-aloud picture book with a surprise ending and classic feel

Anteater is hungry, but he has completely forgotten what anteaters eat. Baffled, and with his tummy rumbling, he consults the other animals. But Sloth is too busy, Toucan is clueless, and Crocodile has his own mouth full. Whatever will Anteater do? It isn't until the ants all run for their lives that Anteater remembers what he should be eating . . . BANANAS! Of course! A delightfully silly tale that little ones will return to again and again.
